Support Fight Is Moved to Senate; Debating Begins

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The battle over flexible vs. rigid farm price supports shifted from committee rooms to the senate floor today.

Senator Ellender, D., La., called for a return to higher supports levels as the only means to "put more dollars into the farmers' pockets without delay." But even as he opened debate on the election year farm bill late yesterday, an amendment was offered to continue the present flexible

School Board Is Warned on Higher Costs

Warned that steadily increasing costs endanger the cash operation of Twin Falls schools, the board of education adopted the 1956-57 budget calls for expenditure of $1,189,355.86 next school year.

"Only by careful planning and by virtue of some cash balance when the present year ends on June 30, 1956, can the board reasonably expect to remain on a cash basis throughout next year, warned Supl. Ernest H. Ragland in presenting the budget. He pointed out that the board had been advised frequently that costs of operating schools are rising constantly.

Increased costs enumerated by the superintendent include rising enrollments, many new classrooms to be opened next year, hiring of 11 new instructors next year and four extra custodians.

"Largest increase in the school expenditures for 1956-57 will be for cost of instruction," Superintendent Ragland said. "An additional sum of $30,400 was included in next year's instructional costs because 10 new teachers and one additional principal appear necessary. Another sum of $8,640 was added for payment of the increments according to the district's last adopted salary schedule. Thus a total of $48,040 will be expended next year for teachers' salaries over costs during the present year."

Costs of instruction listed in the budget total $740,460.51 as compared to $686,775 for the current school year. Instruction costs totaled $598,508.11 for the 1954-55 school year and $529,968.27 for 1953-54.

Proposed administrative costs total $29,500; operation of plant, $18,200; maintenance of plant, $38,495.35; auxiliary agencies, including

Israel Asserts Syria Attacks Fishing Boats

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector, Feb. 23 (AP)—The Jerusalem radio said today that Syrian forces "renewed aggression" against Israeli fishermen on the Sea of Galilee last night for the second time in 36 hours.

A military spokesman reported that Syrian rifle fire was opened on an Israeli fishing craft in the northeastern sector of the sea about 200 yards offshore sometime around midnight.

He said the fishermen left their nets and retreated without firing back or sustaining casualties.

It was in the Sea of Galilee area that one of the most serious clashes in the Jewish-Arab crisis occurred last Dec. 11.

A United Nations truce observer team reported that on that date Israeli army forces killed at least 41 soldiers and civilians in a raid on a Syrian army post and farmhouse near the northeast corner of the Sea of Galilee. Israel said the attack was ordered to silence Syrian guns shelling Israeli fishing boats. The U. N. security council later condemned Israel for the attack.

T. F. Firm Files Suit for Payment

BOISE, Feb. 23 (AP)—A Twin Falls firm today filed an action in U. S. district court asking payment of $30,000 from a Nebraska contracting company and its surety bonding firm.

Detweiler Bros., Inc. alleged in the complaint the money was owed them by James E. Markle and D. M. Grindle, Gordon, Neb., doing business as Markle-Grindle company, for work performed as a sub-contractor at the national reactor testing station in eastern Idaho.

It named Continental Casualty company as the bonding firm for Markle-Grindle.

Detweillers claimed they had $23,200 coming for work done on remodeling a compressor building for which Markle-Grindle had the general contract. They also asked attorney's fees and other costs.

'Spring' Ousted in Return of Winter

After a couple of days of "spring," winter returned to Magic Valley Thursday with a general snowstorm throughout the valley. The state highway district office at Shoshone also reported some drifting of old snow in the Fairfield area. All roads were reported open, however.

No more than an inch of snow had fallen any place in the valley up to noon. The snow in most places was reported wet and heavy. Halley, however, reported a light snow.

For a brief period around 9 a.m. Thursday some of the main highways in the valley were reported slippery but as soon as the snow stopped coming down the highways cleared. Another heavy snow was reported in some parts of the valley shortly after noon.

Police Chief and Sheriff Lose Clothes in Burglary at Rupert

RUPERT, Feb. 23 (AP)—Police Chief Jake Wall and Sheriff Theo Johnson have a personal interest in solving the clothing burglary at the Rupert laundry early Tuesday morning. Some of their clothing was among the suits taken.

There has been media in the case, they report. The automobile used to haul the clothing away has been located in Pocatello but neither the burglar nor the clothing has been located.

Rupert police, at 12:30 a. m. Tuesday, saw an automobile drive from the alley behind the laundry. They following the car for several blocks, noting the license number, but since no traffic laws were being broken, did not stop the vehicle.

After the burglary was reported by Charles Parker, owner of the laundry, at 7 a. m. Tuesday, Pocatello police were asked to investigate the car which had a Bannock county license on it.

In the trunk of the car police found tools used to pry open the door of the laundry, a coat hanger, cover from the Rupert laundry and other evidence.

The owner of the car, a waitress, when questioned by police, proved she had been working at the time of the burglary and told police she had loaned the car to her brother-in-law. Her brother-in-law reported he had left the car parked in the street with the keys in it.

The value of the clothing taken in the burglary has been set at $700. In addition, a portable Royal typewriter is missing.

Auto Victim Gets Aid Here

Speculators watch as police, a doctor and an ambulance driver prepare to lift the stretcher carrying Margaret DeLuca, 7, into an ambulance after a car struck the girl at the intersection of Eighth and Shoshone streets. Dr. C. K. Seawards, who administered first aid, is at the foot of the stretcher at right rear. Bending over the child, right front, is Keith Bird. At left, from front, are Patrolman Bob Eastman and Richard Frazier. (Staff photo-engraving)

Condition for Girl Victim of Car Improves

Condition of Margaret DeLuca, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeLuca, 120 Tenth avenue north, was described as improved Thursday by her physician. She is confined in Magic Valley Memorial hospital with a concussion and other injuries.

The child was struck down at 4:10 p.m. Wednesday in a crosswalk at Eighth and Shoshone streets north by an automobile driven by Mrs. Ray Shearer, 66, 1531 Eleventh avenue east.

Police Chief Howard Gillette said a citation for failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian will be issued Thursday afternoon.

When the girl's condition improves, X-rays of her head will be taken, her doctor said. She will be under close observation.

Impact of the collision knocked the DeLuca girl approximately 38 feet from the crosswalk. Mrs. Shearer stopped her vehicle about 18 feet across the pedestrian crossing, according to the police report, judging by the skid marks of the front wheels.

Investigation by city police revealed that two cars, driven by Raymond O. Maughan, 1984 Maple avenue, and Harold Ochener, 25 Washington courts, were stopped at the intersection in the right lane, headed north. Maughan told officers that he had waved to let the little girl pass in front of his car. She started across the street. Mrs. Shearer, in the left lane, passed the two stationary vehicles and struck the girl in the crosswalk.

The DeLuca girl was returning home after a trip to the grocery store. Force with which she was hit jerked her out of her shoes. A strap on the girl's right shoe was broken. An ambulance took her to Magic Valley Memorial hospital.

Witnesses to the mishap included Maughan, Ochener and Dr. C. K. Seawards.

Driver Facing Topsy Charges

Dale Schneider, Minidoka, has demanded a preliminary hearing in the second offense drunken driving charge against him but Probate Judge George Redford, Rupert, has not set a date for the hearing.

Schneider was arrested Sunday on the charge and appeared before Judge Redford on Tuesday in answer to the complaint.

Trial of Gerald Trunk, Shoshone, on a charge of drunken driving, originally scheduled for Wednesday, has been postponed to a date to be announced by Justice of the Peace Frank Dice in Shoshone.

Extension Granted In Iverson Petition

GOODING, Feb. 23—Attorneys for Joe Iverson, the 17-year-old youth serving a life sentence in the state penitentiary on a charge of lewd and lascivious conduct with a minor girl, reported Thursday they have a 15-day extension in which to file an amendment to their petition for a new trial for Iverson.

District Judge Hugh A. Baker, after he had heard arguments on the original petition, said there was insufficient evidence in it to warrant an order for a new trial. He then gave attorneys 30 days in which to file the amendment.

The 20 days were up Wednesday but May and May, Twin Falls, Iverson's attorneys, said they had been given an additional 15 days in which to file the necessary papers.

Europe Death Total Mounts, 828 Reported

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The death of a 14-month-old Portuguese infant in a haystack fire last night increased the number of Europeans killed directly or indirectly by this month's cold wave to 828, it was reported today.

The haystack fire, in the rural village of Pate, had been lit by children seeking relief from the bone-chilling cold of the continent's worst winter of the century.

Totals Given

Reports from 17 countries gave the following totals of dead: France, 192; Belgium, 28; Portugal, 27; Sweden, 26; Austria and The Netherlands, 24 each; Spain, 22; Switzerland and Greece, 20 each; Turkey, 17; Norway, 12, and Finland, 2.

The freezing gales howling out of Russia have lashed western Europe for more than three weeks, and there is no solid hope of relief in sight. Snow fell along the Atlantic coast yesterday from Britain to Portugal, piling up drifts as much as 10 feet deep.

Highway Blocked

Landslides in northern Italy blocked a highway and destroyed a bridge, a mill and a power plant near Modena. Near Vicenza, a truck loaded with methane gas skidded off the road and exploded, killing its two occupants.

Italy's leftwing president, Giovanni Gronchi, announced today that Russia has contributed 50,000 rubles (nominally worth $12,500) for relief.

Wolves Reported

Residents of the Vosges mountain region of France, reported that the cold has driven hungry wolves out of the hills in to farm districts where none had been seen for years.

Heavy coal consumption and disrupted transportation have created threats of fuel shortages in several nations. Switzerland has decreed a "brownout" of advertising lights to conserve scarce fuel.

Pupils Protest When Holiday Not Observed

Pupils at the Twin Falls high school felt slighted Wednesday because they weren't permitted to observe Washington's birthday with a holiday and registered their protest by going to school but not going to early afternoon classes.

The "disturbance" lasted only a short time and pupils returned to classes as soon as the situation was explained to them, School Supt. Ernest Ragland said.

Every year a school calendar is set out and vacations are based on that, he explained. State requirements are for 174 days of school in a year and the board of education, in setting up the calendar last fall, discussed whether or not Washington's birthday should be observed. He said the board ultimately decided that since most of Twin Falls does not observe the anniversary as a holiday the school would follow suit.

As soon as this was explained to the pupils they resumed their class work, Ragland said.

Doctor Killed By Knives of Chinese Man

CHICAGO, Feb. 23 (AP)—An aged Chinese laborer, crying "you cut me, now I cut you," stabbed a doctor in the chest and killed him yesterday.

Dr. Bruno Epstein, 25, died minutes after the laborer, 76-year-old Jim Go, stabbed him in the chest and abdomen.

Doctors and nurses grappled with the brawling patient and finally subdued him by smashing a chair over his head. He carried two six-inch butcher knives.

The old man had difficulty explaining the slaying to police, since he speaks little English. Through an interpreter, officers pieced together the following story:

Jim Go, a dishwasher, was a patient in the hospital from Jan. 9 to Feb. 8. He underwent a hernia operation and said he had been in constant pain since. Epstein did not perform the operation.

On Saturday, Go returned to the hospital and asked a doctor he believed to be Epstein for drugs. The doctor refused and Go went away convinced that he was going to die.

He decided to take the doctor who had refused his request along with him.

He bought the butcher knives and went to the hospital, where he found Epstein in a staff room. Epstein turned away to see whether an examining room was clear and Go thought he was being deserted again.

Saying "you cut me once, now I cut you," he whipped a knife from under his coat and stabbed Epstein twice. The young man, a native of Vienna, Austria, staggered into an adjoining room and died.

Demo Candidate for Congress Will Reveal Welker's Record

BOISE, Feb. 23 (Special)—Frank Church, a Boise attorney, today announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. senate with a statement in which he promised to "carry to the people all the facts concerning the deplorable public record of Herman Welker," the Republican incumbent. "These facts the people are entitled to know, that they may judge the fitness of this man to hold a seat in the United States senate," Church declared.

In announcing his candidacy, Church said, "It's now apparent that this year's race will be of the hard, long, cross-country sort that should prove suitable for a young runner. I will go to the far corners of Idaho. I will learn from the farmers their opinions of the farm problem that has steadily worsened since the Republicans took office more than three years ago. I will talk to the working men during their lunch hour, and after the day's work shift is over. I will learn from the small businessmen their reasons for the shortage of working capital and the sents no special interests, I must learn all I can about the general interests of the people of my state." Church pledged himself to discuss "in clear, unimpaired terms, the momentous issues that confront our country, as well as the special problems that confront our own state." He promised "to document Idaho's decade of stunted growth and discuss the things that we must do to keep pace with our neighboring state, so that Idaho may enjoy the healthy expansion necessary to create jobs and opportunity for our own children."

In conclusion the Democratic candidate pledged himself to "do my best to conduct a forthright campaign, to fight hard, but cleanly with such dignity and high purpose as to earn the support of the people of Idaho, and merit the high office I shall ask them to confer upon me."

A native of Idaho, Church comes from a pioneer family. His grandparents lived in Idaho City during the gold-rush days, and his grandfather was appointed U. S. assayer before the turn of the century by President Grover Cleveland.

After attending Boise public schools, Church prepared for the law. On Dec. 7, 1942, he enlisted as a private in the U. S. army. He served in the ranks for 18 months and was

A large, dark, irregularly shaped object, possibly a rock or a piece of debris, resting on a light-colored surface. The object has a rough, textured appearance with many small, light-colored specks or inclusions visible within the dark mass. It is roughly oval-shaped but with jagged, uneven edges. The background is a light, off-white surface with some faint horizontal lines and minor dust or scratches.

When you went into a store to buy, your chief source of information would be the clerk behind the counter... and he would need a fabulous memory to recite the uses and advantages of the thousand and one products carried in stock.

Prices would be higher, too. Without advertising (to tell you and millions of others about products of all kinds) there would be less mass demand so there would be less mass production to cut manufacturing costs. A metal scouring pad might sell for a dollar—and be found in only one store within miles.

When you think about it, you realize advertising brings you the news you need about the products you want—and helps keep prices down as well.

Wife Seeking Annulment of '55 Marriage

GOODING, Feb. 23—Betty Lou McConnell asked to have her marriage to Lawrence Clyde McConnell annulled in a suit filed in district court here Tuesday.

The complaint stated McConnell was already married at the time of their marriage in Winnemucca, Nev., Dec. 19, 1955. Fredricks and Roberts, Boise, are attorneys for Mrs. McConnell.

In another action, Evelyn Gehrig is suing Charles Paul Gehrig for divorce. She charges cruelty. They were married in Fairfield March 21, 1951.

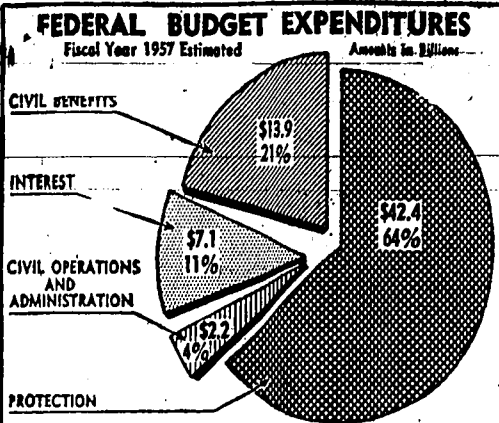

Mrs. Gehrig seeks custody of their two children and $75 a month child support. Murphy and Schwartz, Shoshone, are representing her.

Charging extreme cruelty, Maxine E. Bloomfield has filed a divorce action against Donald J. Bloomfield. They were married in Winnemucca, Nev. Nov. 19, 1947.

Mrs. Bloomfield, represented by Joseph M. Imhoff, Jr., Boise, seeks custody of their two children and $75 a month support. She also asks to be awarded interest in a cafe listed as community property, subject to the outstanding indebtedness, and their furniture. She asks Bloomfield be awarded a 1953 Chevrolet.

The U. S. population increased 26 million in the last 10 years, a larger increase than the nation experienced in the previous 21 years.

Protection Is Expensive

This pie chart breaks down President Eisenhower's $59.9-billion-dollar budget for fiscal 1957 in terms of a few broad purposes. As it has been for years, the largest portion, 42.4 billion dollars or 64 per cent, goes for deterring possible aggression and strengthening our alliances. Next largest part, 13.9 billion dollars or 21 per cent is earmarked for civil benefits of various kinds. (NEA)

Decline for Political Parties In U. S. Is Shown by Returns

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—There were no political parties in the modern sense when George Washington twice was elected President of the United States toward the end of the 18th century.

That's schoolboy stuff. Only the thoughtful adult, however, is aware that by any realistic definition of the term, there are no political parties in the United States today. A fair definition of a political party would be:

A nationally organized group of voters seeking the election of federal office holders who would be inescapably committed to the basic principles of the organized group.

The Communist party would qualify under that definition. Neither the Republican nor Democratic party could make the grade. The briefest examination of basic congressional roll calls would prove that.

What passes for a major political party today in the United States is an assortment of big and little pressure and minority groups. They are held together sometimes by compromise among themselves, often at the expense of principle and/or party policy.

Sometimes these political mixed pickles are kept in their jar by the force of a powerful political personality. Franklin D. Roosevelt was one of those. He presided over an assortment of right and left wingers who'd have been at each other's throats, but for him.

The political party, as it is supposed to be, must have begun to fade in 1920, although none seemed aware of it at the time. It is a fact, however, that in every presidential election since 1916—with the possible exception of the 1948 thriller—the winner has been chosen by an overwhelming margin, a real landslide. The Independent, or uncon-mitted bloc of voters, was being born and getting its first political experience. It is a big bloc now.

Personalities have come to bulk as large or larger than parties. That is what makes Dwight D. Eisenhower the overshadowing figure among Republicans. He proved four years ago that he could pull the disorganized party together and get the independents in, as well.

There is no agreement among Republicans that any other man can achieve that this year. There is much fear that the Republican party would splinter badly if Mr. Eisenhower refused a second term.

The Democrats are worse off, if possible. The race issue has bruised party wounds unhealed since the angry 1952 national convention and the bolt of substantial numbers of southerners to the Republican ticket. The Democratic splintering process began in 1948, three years after FDR's death, when a state's rights ticket held four southern states from the Democratic presidential nominee.

The South could be solid again in this presidential year, or divide, as in 1948 and 1952. That probably will depend largely on the party's presidential nominee. Strangely enough, some southern conservatives believe the South would be solid again this year if Adlai E. Stevenson were nominated, although some southern states bolted him four years ago. Whether Gov. Averell Harriman of New York or Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee could hold the South together is more open to question.

What seems to be taking place in the United States is a realignment of parties which, in time, will come up with two opposing groups of nationally organized voters, each actually committed and sticking to certain basic principles.

There were 1,557 arrests for drunken driving in New York City in 1955.

Courting Ends When "Ghost" Gets Expelled

LONDON, Feb. 23 (AP)—A three-week "out of this world" romance between a pretty cockney bobby and a boy today—at least her family was over today—after a tumultuous one-hour session, attended by newsmen and angry police, that he had freed 15-year-old Shirley Hitchens from her sweetheart, Donald, a ghost.

Shirley herself admitted she felt "so different."

"All of a sudden I felt my mind go clear," the teen-ager said. "I'm as happy as can be."

Changes Mind

At first Shirley was reluctant to end the romance but she changed her mind after the session, probably one of the strangest in the history of ghost-chasing.

Despite warnings that publicity might ruin everything, the session was conducted in the presence of a crowd of newsmen, Hanks, three other mediums and Shirley's father who thought the entire ghostly romance was "nonsense."

At one point newsmen made so much commotion—police came hanging on the doors to relay neighbors' complaints and plead for quiet.

Called "Uncanny," Shirley's father, a motorman, admitted the session was "uncanny."

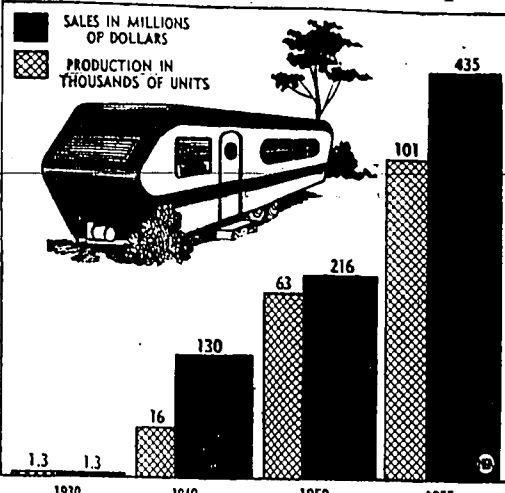

Lost Her Job

Donald cost her job as a shopgirl, she said. He scared the other shopgirls by his constant rappings, she said. She said she liked having him around even though he frightened her a bit.

But Hitchens was fed up with the whole business. "This nonsense has to stop," she said.

Hanks was among a number of spiritualists who became interested in the case after Shirley told her story on a television program Tuesday.

Mobile Homes Move up

Sales of mobile homes (trailers, to you) reached an all-time high in 1955, with a total of 435 million dollars. Chart above, from Mobile Homes Manufacturers association data, shows the tremendous growth of the industry. In its 25-year life, production rose from 1,300 units in 1930 to 101,900 units last year. The latter is a 34 per cent increase over 1954's sales of 76,899 units worth 324 million dollars. (NEA)

Reason Given for Foundation Grant

BOSTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—The President of the Ford Foundation, H. Rowan Galtner, Jr., said today the foundation made its historic half-billion-dollar college and hospital grant last December in the hope the public would also aid the institutions.

The grants were "challenge grants," Galtner told the Greater Boston Chamber of Commerce, and were made "to stimulate community action to do the main job."

The grants to more than 600 educational institutions and 3,500 hospitals "meet only a small fraction of the need," Galtner said. "Today these institutions are in trouble. Inflation has reduced the effective value of endowments at a time when they are confronted with a staggering increase in costly responsibilities," he said.

Free China's birth rate of 49 per thousand in 1954 was about twice that of the United States.

West Germany to Begin to Bargain

BONN, Germany, Feb. 23 (AP)—West Germany agreed yesterday to bargain with the Big Three toward German powers on their claim for continued financial support for allied forces in Germany.

Experts of the four powers probably will meet here next week to discuss the dispute.

Allied sources made it plain the Big Three are determined to press their claim hard, basing it on the fact that West Germany has no fighting force yet and depends entirely on the allied forces for protection. The Big Three contend Germany is obligated to pay until she can look after her own defense.

190 Farmers Suffocated in Prison Room

KHARTOUM, Sudan, Feb. 23 (AP)—An official announcement today blamed suffocation for the deaths of 190 Sudanese cotton farmers jammed into a single room of a "black hole" prison after their arrest Sunday in cotton riots.

Representatives of the White Nile Tenants' league said another 150 tenants were killed by police gun fire in new rioting Tuesday at Kosti, 240 miles south of Khartoum.

The victims of the "black hole" deaths were among 334 cotton farmers arrested by police after their crops exploded into rioting Sunday. A spokesman for the owners of the Gode agricultural cooperative on the White Nile said the Sunday riots were communist inspired.

The cotton farmers were held in a room at an army barracks in Kosti for questioning. When the doors were opened yesterday, 190 of the prisoners were dead. Eight others were critically ill.

Autopsies Held
Official sources said the 334 prisoners were crammed into a single prison ward, measuring 20 by 65 feet, Tuesday morning. Autopsies on three of the victims established suffocation as the cause of death, they said.

Tenant league representatives said "thousands" of cotton workers staged a strike and demonstration in Kosti Tuesday to protest the arrests of Sunday's demonstrators.

Police first tried to disperse the crowd with tear gas bombs and then opened fire, killing 150 of the demonstrators, they said.

Protest Made
The representatives arrived in Khartoum today to protest to the government against the "mass" killings by police in the streets of Kosti and the prison disaster.

The Sudanese prisoners were arrested after a riot that stemmed from their refusal to deliver cotton crops to a marketing company at Kosti, in the Blue Nile province of this newly-independent nation.

Twenty farmers, two policemen and a guard were killed in the fighting. Police arrested 285 of the rioters and bundled them into the army barracks to await trial. Shays said all the prisoners were confined in a single room.

Communique Quoted
The communique issued by the Sudan government said:

"The deplorable Kosti disturbances caused the authorities to arrest a large number of farmers on charges of investigating or taking part in riots and detain them in detention rooms for interrogation."

"This action was taken... on the evening of Feb. 21 but when the gates of the rooms were opened this morning, it was found with deep regret that no small number of them were dead and some others in a very bad condition."

The communique said that medical authorities are investigating and will report to the cabinet.

Clothes Designer Dies at Age of 70

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Hattie Carnegie, 70, an Austrian immigrant who helped put New York on the world fashion map, died yesterday after a long illness.

She designed women's clothing ranging from exclusive creations for wealthy society matrons to the official WAO uniform and a modern nun's habit for a Carmelite order.

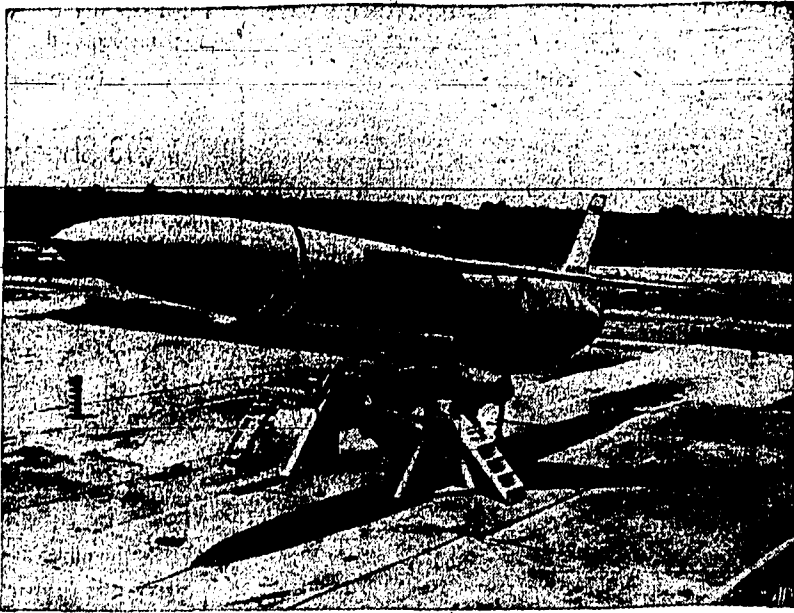

Miss Carnegie was born in Vienna but came to the United States with her parents while in her teens. She quit school at 11 to help out her poverty-stricken family. She worked for a time as a messenger in Macy's department store and then got a job in a wholesale dress house.

Although she had only one skirt and three blouses to wear to work she wore them so well that a dressmaker neighbor, Rose Roth, gave her a job and they later became partners.

In 1909, the two established a shop with Miss Carnegie designing clothes and Miss Roth making them. Miss Carnegie never learned to sew.

Although Hitler had to wear glasses to read ordinary print, he refused to wear them in public.

20-Year-Old Youth Begins Fourth Year Of "Living Death" Since Auto Accident

DEMING, N. M., Feb. 23 (AP)—A 20-year-old is nearing the end of his fourth year of "living death."

Once a strapping high school student, Jimmy Smith has been in a coma since March 30, 1932.

His world collapsed that day when he suffered a severe brain injury in an auto accident.

As far as medical knowledge goes, doctors here say, Jimmy Smith is now in one of the longest complete comas in history.

His case is considered one of the strangest and most unusual in medical annals. Other persons have been in long comas. But their condition has been maintained on higher levels. Often they can see or move.

All Jimmy's thoughts and actions have been erased. He is fed water and nourishment just like a plant.

Brain specialists throughout the nation have been unable to offer any hope or suggestion for a cure.

Will he live to an old age? His case is so rare that no doctor knows how long he can go on.

The Jimmy Smith story began here when his car turned over on him.

He was taken to a hospital practically dead. For more than 48 hours it was a question whether he would live.

Surgeons found the cerebral cortex shattered, but the brain stem automatically sustaining life.

He is in "excellent health" despite his paralysis, and feels none of the emotions of pleasure, anger or hunger.

Once an angular, blond youth of 16, he's a baby-faced brunette at 20 with the appearance of a 10-year-old.

Milk is the main part of his diet. In addition he is fed baby meats, baby vegetables, soft drinks, beer and water.

"Our greatest problem is his temperature control," his doctor says. At first it soared to 107. Now it hovers between 97 and 102. Nurses control it with warm blankets or cool fans.

He suffers no mental pains. Jabbing him with a medical needle only results in basic reflex actions.

To Jimmy's mother, he is "just like a baby again." She feels that everything possible has been done. If he recovers, she says it would be a "miracle."

It was only a few weeks ago that Jimmy's mother agreed to have him moved to the hospital. For more than 3½ years she and three special nurses cared for him at the Ben Smith home.

She had crowded everything else out of her life and kept a constant vigil on him.

Red Generals Laud Soviet Armed Might

MOSCOW, Feb. 23 (AP)—Newspapers here, in editions marking the red army's 38th anniversary, printed articles by top-ranking generals today saying Russia can deliver counterblows anywhere in the world in case of attack.

They were the latest of a series of declarations warning that American cities would be vulnerable to "massive retaliation" in any new war.

The principal article, written for Pravda by Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky, said the red army "possesses sufficient quantities... of the most modern weapons, including atomic and hydrogen bombs and long-range missiles."

Demands Repeated

Sokolovsky also repeated Russia's familiar demands for "peaceful coexistence, disarmament and destruction of atomic and hydrogen weapons."

An article by Deputy War Minister Alexander Vasilievsky in Izvestia said Russia possesses not only long-range rocket weapons but "super-sonic fighter and various types of aircraft capable of coping with any situation if attacked."

Vasilievsky said the Soviet armed

Stalin Not Mentioned

None of the articles made any mention of the late Premier Josef Stalin, who was customarily extolled here during his lifetime as the "greatest military genius in history."

The articles also acknowledged the contribution of the western allies to victory in World War II, continuing a practice inaugurated after Stalin's death.

Negroes Plan Massed Walk; Prayer Meets

MONTEGOMERY, Ala., Feb. 23 (AP)—A minister called 10,000 Negroes to prayer today on the eve of a proposed mass "pilgrimage" through Montgomery streets in protest against scores of arrests for boycotting segregated city buses.

The Rev. R. D. Abernathy, one of 87 Negroes rounded up yesterday and charged with plotting the 11-week-old racial boycott, said he expected 10,000 Negroes to gather for his prayer at his church tonight. The boycott, started last Dec. 5, was staged originally as a one-day demonstration protesting the arrest of seamstress Rosa Parks for refusing to move to the Negro section of a bus.

Boycott Continues

The boycott was continued as a means of protesting seating arrangements under segregation laws, not the laws themselves.

The Negroes objected to having to stand on buses while seats remained empty in the section reserved for whites.

The boycott, termed about 80 per cent effective from the start, almost immediately caused a 50 per cent hike in fares to make up for revenue losses. It has remained as effective, if not more so, since the indictments were returned.

Meet at Courthouse

Abernathy proclaimed tomorrow—arrangement day for the 113 expected to be under arrest by then—as "prayer-pilgrimage day" to be commemorated by walking. Abernathy intimated they would converge upon the courthouse.

Sheriff's deputies continued rounding up the remaining Negroes indicted as leaders instigating the racial boycott or helping make it work by operating taxis and carpools.

The Negroes named in 11 indictments returned by the Montgomery county grand jury two days ago were brought in by sheriff's cars traveling in relays to Negro districts. Defendants all quickly made the $300 bonds uniformly imposed.

Walking Stated

Abernathy urged the Negroes to observe arrangement day by avoiding the use of either taxis or the carpools, and the word was passed that most Negroes would walk to the mass meeting tonight.

"We feel that in the mass arrest of 113 of our leading citizens a great injustice has been imposed on 50,000 Negroes. Because we are Negroes, we have been indicted," Abernathy said.

The first round of arrests yesterday included 26 ministers including the Rev. B. E. Seay, former secretary of the worldwide home missions board of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church.

Clergymen Accused

Abernathy, head of the boycotters' negotiating committee, was among this group. The clergymen were accused of furnishing most of the leadership in the attempt to enforce demands for first come-first served bus seating.

There also were several women, including Jo Ann Robinson, president of the Montgomery Negro Women's Political Activities committee. Another leader arrested was E. D. Nixon, former state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

All were released under bond after being photographed and fingerprinted. The grand jury said its investigation showed the boycott was illegal and indicted them on misdemeanor charges.

Death on Hillside

Western Business Chiefs Are Betting Billions on 1956 Being 'Banner Year'

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 23 (AP)—Business leaders of the West are betting billions that 1956 will be another banner year, a United Press survey showed today.

A sampling of executive opinion in the fastest growing region of the nation indicated that business and industry were pushing ahead with plans for huge outlays for plant expansion despite expected declines in the key housing and auto industries.

B. Clark Beise, president of Bank of America, predicted that "we will move ahead steadily and prove ourselves able to compensate" for soft spots in the economy.

"The spending of large sums of money by business and industry for plant enlargement and modernization will stimulate production effort as we adjust to continued technological progress," Beise said.

Kinsey M. Robinson, president of Washington State Power company, said his company expects its business to increase seven or eight per cent in 1956 "even though business nationally shows some lessening of increase during the last half of the year."

"Our experience has shown us that there is always a lag in the Northwest area," Robinson said, "so we doubt that it (lessening of increase) will affect our area in 1956."

Washington Water Power has budgeted 22½ million dollars for construction this year, two-thirds of which is earmarked for its 85 million dollar Noxon rapids hydro-electric project on the Clark Fork river in western Montana.

Alden G. Roach, president of United States Steel's Columbia-Geneva division, predicted that western steel production in 1956 should total 6,750,000 ingot tons, an increase of four per cent over last year.

Roach based his forecast on "the continuing requirements for defense material, large diameter transmission pipe lines, construction of all types, railroad freight car programs and increased requirements for tin plate to meet expanding canning requirements."

Roach said Columbia-Geneva was in the process of enlarging its 10 open hearth furnaces and auxiliary facilities at the Geneva works in Utah. When completed in 1957, it will boost Geneva's capacity by 380,000 tons to 2,260,000 tons annually.

Walter F. Loomis, president of Loomis Armored Car service, predicted that the latter half of 1956 will be stronger than the first half. The current weakness of the automobile industry in itself will help bring about this upturn, he said.

"It is inevitable that the major car manufacturers will speed up production of their new models," Loomis said, "and assure sufficient transition from the current design, styling and performance to restore widest public acceptance."

An important part of planned Loomis expansion is in size and number of its money trucks, a graphic example of how the weight and value of western bank deposits have grown. In 1940 a one-ton chassis was big enough. Today armored cars must be 1½ to 2½ tonners to support the sheer weight and bulk of the money flow Loomis handles.

Industrialist Henry J. Kaiser looked for tremendous growth in the economy in the foreseeable future.

"All of the basic industries in which we are engaged—aluminum, steel, cement, gypsum building products, chemicals, refractories, etc.—can count on high production and heavy demand in 1956," Kaiser said.

"In fact, substantial expansions are being planned in each of these fields," he said.

He said that at the present time the various Kaiser affiliated companies have a total expansion program amounting to well over a half billion dollars.

Harold Quinton, president of Southern California Edison company, anticipated some over-all decline in the economy this year compared to 1955.

But 1955 was a year of "extraordinary growth" for Edison, requiring record plant increases for 1956 and 1957, Quinton said.

"During these two years our gross plant additions will total approximately $126,888,000 and $124,328,000 respectively," he said. "This year alone an anticipated 340,000 kilowatts of generating capacity will be added to the Edison system."

R. L. Minckler, president of General Petroleum company, reported that several improvements are planned for the company's refineries at Torrance and Ferndale.

"We expect an increase of about four per cent in the demand for oil this year," he said.

William M. Allen, president of Boeing Airplane company, said sales should remain about the same as in 1955, with the company's employment expected to be fairly constant throughout the year.

Stevenson and Truman Differ Over 'Mistake'

CHICAGO, Feb. 23 (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson differed with former President Truman today over whether Stephen A. Mitchell's appointment as Democratic national chairman was a mistake.

Mr. Truman has said in his published memoirs that he thinks Stevenson made some mistakes in his 1952 presidential campaign, including the appointment of Mitchell. Stevenson, currently a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, answered "I don't consider it was a mistake."

"Steve Mitchell did a first rate job during the 1952 campaign and during his tenure as national chairman," Stevenson said. "He has earned undying gratitude of the Democratic party."

Earlier, Stevenson was quoted in the New York Times as saying "he (Mr. Truman) thought it was a mistake for me to appoint a new chairman of the national committee. Perhaps it was, but appointing a personal friend was a mistake that most all presidential candidates have made."

Stevenson's headquarters here last night issued a clarification of

Offices Beseiged

CALCUTTA, India, Feb. 23 (AP)—"Bolshevik" dockworkers beseiged the offices of the port commission here yesterday, demanding that police abandon efforts to track down their fugitive leaders.

The mob camped all day outside the commission offices, vowing to "imprison" the commissioners indefinitely unless they gave in. Police broke up the demonstration at nightfall.

The statement in the Times, which is carrying the Truman memoirs.

"The point I was trying to make in commenting on Mr. Truman's memoirs was that if it was a mistake, as he says, to appoint a personal friend as national chairman, then it was a mistake that most all presidential candidates have made," Stevenson said in the statement. "I don't consider it was a mistake."

One Month Baby Has Molar Tooth

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (AP)—Amid exclamations of surprise, dentists examined yesterday a full-grown upper left molar in the mouth of Robert Riddle Clinton. He had a toothache. And, he's just a month old.

Doctors said they'd never heard of such a young baby getting a back tooth. They decided not to pull it until today, after X-rays are examined.

The baby's father, Robert R. Clinton, Brooklyn, said the tooth came in when the baby was 2 weeks old.

Meat Specials Are Featured Through U.S.

By The Associated Press

Meat of many varieties will be found at special prices in food markets this week, giving shoppers a wide choice for this major item of most week-end menus.

Again pork is being widely featured, with prices remaining at the low level of recent weeks.

Beef Lower

Beef in a variety of cuts, from sirloin to chuck, is being offered at lower prices in a number of markets. In some cases the price of sirloin is 4 to 5 cents a pound below last week and some rib roasts are off as much as 4 cents.

Lamb prices stiffened slightly on the wholesale market this week but this has not been reflected in most retail stores. In fact in some sections the price of a leg of lamb was actually down as much as 2 cents per pound.

Fish Plentiful

Fish continues to be plentiful for the Lenten season. Prices have been stable at a level close to that of a year ago. Some retailers notice, however, that lower prices for meat have resulted in some buyer resistance to fish.

Another Lenten item of interest in the egg market. Generally prices for all grades have been running as much as 5 cents a dozen higher than last year. Still market observers say current prices should represent a low point in the year since the heavy production season is under way and will continue through the spring until late June.

Chickens Featured

Frying chickens are being featured at special prices by at least one large food chain and are pointed out as good buys in others. The price seems to vary according to local supplies but is down as much as 4 cents a pound in some sections.

Outstanding buys in vegetables for this period of the winter season are few. The lettuce, including some regional variations, includes only new cabbage, potatoes and onions.

Variety Offered

More variety is offered in what produces men consider to be good buys. These include beets, peppers, sweet potatoes, turnips, pascal celery and iceberg lettuce.

In the moderate range are corn, eggplant, carrots, salad greens of various kinds and spinach. In some areas fresh strawberries are lower than they have been, but here quality is a big factor and the shopper's own judgment must determine how high to class the price.

Two other items generally well above the moderate level at this time of year are tomatoes and the first shipment from this year's fresh asparagus crop.

On fruit counters, oranges were generally a little higher this week, leaving grapefruit, tangerines and apples among the better buys in most sections.

John Sanborn Officially Puts Hat Into Ring for U. S. Senate

BOISE, Feb. 23 (Special)—John Sanborn, Hagerman, former congressman for the second district of Idaho, made formal announcement today of his candidacy for United States senator in the Aug. 14, 1956, Republican-primary election. His announcement follows:

"I have decided to become a candidate for United States senator, although there appears to be no lack of candidates. Other members of congress from Idaho have had farming and livestock interests but I am the only one elected to congress in recent years who is, primarily, a farmer. I had a large dairy for many years and have a beef operation.

"Basically, Idaho is an agricultural state and I feel that the voters of Idaho should have the opportunity to vote for a qualified farmer for senator, especially when the farm problem is being made an issue. I have had extensive legislative experience and a large and friendly acquaintanceship in congress—many of my former colleagues in the house are now serving in the senate and one is vice president. It is my wish that I may use this training as a United States senator, in behalf of the people of Idaho and of the nation during this critical period.

"A candidate for the United States senate should be willing to go all out in his service to his state and to his country. He must truly uphold the Constitution of the United States, the document upon which the guarantee of our rights and freedoms are based. Mere lip-service will not do.

"The office demands courage, constant work, alertness, deep thinking and considered judgment without bias or prejudice. My record of 14 years in the state legislature and four years in the United States congress will bear witness that this is the creed that I live and practice.

"I know the farmer as in an economic squeeze, especially the small farmer and renter. Since government policies are largely responsible for this predicament I believe the government has a responsibility to do something about it. I will discuss at length during the campaign, I have always been interested in and have given consideration to all phases of activity in Idaho. I believe that a senator, by virtue of his office, is in a position to help alert industries to the possibilities and advantages of locating in Idaho. I would endeavor to be actively helpful along that line."

A native of Illinois, John Sanborn came to Idaho as a young man and took up farming on the King Hill irrigation tract when it was first opened. Later he moved to a farm in Hagerman valley where he engaged in farming and dairying. He still resides there although he has changed from dairy cattle to beef. He is a graduate of Oberlin College, Oberlin, O., and has a law degree and master's degree in political science from Columbia university, New York City. He has been active in

Crisis Facing Mollet's Bids On Vacations

PARIS, Feb. 23 (AP)—Premier Guy Mollet was prepared today to stake the life of his young government on winning national assembly approval of his bill to give French workers three-week paid vacations.

The cabinet decided yesterday that Mollet could lose a vote of confidence if necessary during the debate on the issue.

The bill was approved yesterday by the chamber's labor commission by 34 votes with all eight moderate deputies opposing. The vote indicated that the bill would have smooth sailing in the assembly.

But there are certain elements, notably the deputies of anti-tax crusader Pierre Poujade, who will not miss the chance to vote against the government. However, the opposition would not be strong enough to overthrow Mollet.

Mollet is more likely to run into trouble over the paid-holiday issue.

The Idaho Farm Bureau Federation having been a state director, three times a member of its state resolutions committee and chairman of its state tax committee. He has been a member of the Grange for many years. He has served as a trustee of the Hagerman Independent school district. He is a Scottish Rite Mason and a member of El Korah Shrine.

While in congress Sanborn was a member of the public lands or interior committee. During 1949 and 1950 he successfully piloted the Palisades project authorization bill through congress.

Preacher Seeking Faith Segregation

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 23 (AP)—A Southern Baptist leader told the South Carolina general assembly yesterday he favors not only racial but religious segregation.

Dr. W. A. Criswell of the Dallas, Tex., First Baptist church, told legislators that outsiders are trying to force a crossing of social lines in the South "that's going to get in your family."

"We built our lives according to deep intimacies that are dear and precious to us," Criswell said. "We don't want to be forced by laws of statutes to cross into those intimate things where we don't want to go."

He said he not only strongly favored racial segregation but that it would be set for religious groups to "stick to their own kind."

Audrey Green, also 18, to give the long and short of it at Victoria Barracks, Portsmouth, England. Newson, from Priory Hill, Dover, had to be fitted with a special uniform—including size 15 shoes. Audrey, of Ballycastle, Ireland, also had to have a uniform tailored to fit her 4 feet, 9 inches. (AP wirephoto)

Oust From Hotel Asked for Peron

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23 (AP)—Rep. T. James Tumulty wants ousted Argentine dictator Juan Peron thrown out of a Panama hotel owned by the U. S. government.

The New Jersey Democrat also suggested the United States ask the Panamanian government "to tell this pun to hit the road."

Tumulty, who made a trip to the canal zone in December with a house merchant marine subcommittee, said the former Argentine dictator is a guest at the Hotel Washington in Cristobal, Republic of Panama. He said the hotel is owned by the Panama Canal company, a corporation completely controlled by the U. S. government.

"Bombing" Held

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 23.—Copies of the U. S. Constitution yesterday fluttered down over Jackson from an airplane chartered by a Chicago Negro who wanted to make the citizens of Mississippi.

Al Benson, 48-year-old native Mississippi, and now a disc jockey for a Chicago radio station, said he was afraid to make the flight to the air drop.
